

FLASH: 2019 Medicare Advantage Presentations

October 23, 2018

Medicare Open Enrollment is upon us (October 15–December 7, 2018), so it's a great time to brush up on the differences between Original Medicare, Medicare Supplement and Medicare Advantage. This can help you be more informed and answer questions from your patients.

We have created three presentations to give you a better understanding of our Medicare Advantage plans for 2019. Please watch the appropriate presentation for your region at the link below or in the Medicare section of Provider.HealthAlliance.org. Contact your provider relations specialist with any questions.
